RE: Departmental Program Review

As part of the new round of departmental program review, the Central Administration has requested that each department and/or program submit a last will and testament as an appendix to the formal written review. In the spirit of collegial community, I recommend that you consult with all of the members of the department before composing this document. It is sufficient to have the University Counsel certify the document.

The document must have the approval of the Dean of your College, the Vice-Chancellor for Academic Affairs, the Vice-Chancellor for Administration and Finance, the Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs, and the Chancellor before it is incorporated into the program review document. The administration has decided that 30% of all possessions (less those noted as exempt by the VCAA's office) must be bequeathed to the administration for supplementary assistant Dean and/or assistant Vice Chancellor salaries.

The attached Last Will and Testament can serve as a model. Thank you for your cooperation.

Last Will and Testament

Department of Sociology

We, the Department of Sociology, domiciled at the University of Nebraska at Kearney, and temporarily residing in Founders Hall, do declare that this is our Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking all prior Wills and Codicils.

First: We direct that expenses of our last program review, cremation, and memorial service be paid as soon after our program review as may be practicable and convenient.

Second: As we are no longer affiliated with the Departments of Social Work and/or Criminal Justice, we hereby disinherit those programs and direct that they receive nothing from our estate.

Third: We give certain items of our tangible personal property, as described in the attached memorandum which we have prepared, to the persons named therein. If for any reason, no such memorandum is in existence at the time of our program review, or if any such memorandum fails to dispose of all such property effectively, we give, devise, and bequeath such property, or the portion thereof not effectively disposed of, to the residual beneficiaries of our estate, share and share alike, and to their heirs forever.

On this 21 day of January, 1992, the Department of Sociology, Testator, personally published and declared the foregoing instrument, as and for our Last Will and Testament, in the presence of each of us and all of us together, who, at their request, in their presence, and in the presence of each other, also signed the said instrument as witnesses. We further state that each of us believes that at the time they executed the foregoing instrument, they were of sound average adequate marginal mind and memory, of lawful age, and did so execute it as their own free act and deed and not under unlawful influence of any person outside of the administration of the University of Nebraska at Kearney.

Memoranda Attachment 21 January, 1992

We leave 1 centrally-located office to the disenfranchised Dean Burtilson, 1 West Center office to the entirely-too-enfranchised assistant Dean Bucker, and 5 offices to the Department of Computer Science and Information Systems if they survive our demise for 120 days. To Herb Cunningham, we leave 34 Apple 2+ computers so that he can fulfill his dream of a campus-wide academic computing network. We leave our 11 beloved Sociology Majors to be divided equally between Family and Consumer Science and Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Leisure, share and share alike. We leave 3.4 tons of unused memoranda to Dean Burtilson so that he can reach the dream that we both strove for. We leave 4.9 tons used memoranda to be sold to Kearney Recycling Association with proceeds to Sociology Chair Memorial Scholarship Fund. In order to express our gratitude for all of the support that the Faculty Senate has given us, we leave our 3 classes in the General Studies Program to the Learning Skills Department. Finally we leave all of our accumulated respect to Assistant Dean Bucker who could really use some.
